

CLASS: VI
Prepared By: Arpana Kamat

SUBJECT: English
Poem no. 7 and conjunction

Q.1. Fill in the Blanks:

1. The child hears the street hawker cry, “ _____, _____, _____.”
2. The gardener is busy digging the _____.
3. The watchman walks up and down the _____, carrying his _____.
4. The child envies the hawker because he can roam around _____ all day.
5. The poem is written by _____.

Q.2. Answer in one Sentence Questions:

1. What does the hawker sell in the poem?

---

2. Why does the child admire the gardener?

---

3. How does the watchman spend his night?

---

4. What is the main theme of the poem?

---

5. Imagine you are the gardener from the poem. Write a short paragraph describing your day in your own words.

Q.3. Complete the sentences using appropriate conjunctions:

1. I like both apples _____ oranges.
2. He stayed back _____ he was feeling unwell.
3. The gardener works hard _____ he enjoys his job.
4. The watchman was tired _____ he didn't stop walking.
5. Either you complete your homework now _____ you will miss playtime.