Avtar Singh Cheema: The First Indian to Climb Mount Everest

Avtar Singh Cheema was the first Indian to climb Mount Everest. He reached the top on May 20, 1965. This was a proud moment for India. Cheema was part of a group called the Indian Everest Expedition. Many people worked hard together to make this climb successful. Mount Everest is the tallest mountain in the world. It is not easy to climb because of the cold weather, strong winds, and less oxygen at the top. Cheema and his team were very brave. They trained for months to get ready for the journey. Cheema's success showed the world how strong and determined Indians can be. Because of his great achievement, Avtar Singh Cheema became a hero. He proved that with hard work and courage, big dreams can come true
