

DATE: 27/06/2024
CLASS: 3rd
Prepared By: Shilpa B

Shared on- _____
SUBJECT: English
LS NO - 6. A Wish Fulfilled

Pre -Activity-

Draw a picture of our national bird and write few lines about it.

Q.1. Keywords and Word meanings:

1. gorge: eat greedily
2. cravat: neck scarf
3. sheen: shine, gleam
4. strutted: Walked with pride
5. splendour: came along
6. accompanied: came along
7. keen: powerful, strong
8. elegance: grace, stylishness

Q.2. Answer the following questions:

(a). Why did everyone feel safe with Ms Kite?

Ans: Ms. Kite had keen eyesight and kept her eyes and ears open to everything that happened in Birdsville. She always knew if someone was up to some mischief.

(b) What does this line show about Babli's job? How I wish I had a more exciting Job!

Ans: It shows that she does not like her job.

(b). An idea Stuck her! What idea struck Babli?

Ans: She will be a designer and sew all kinds of wonderful dresses for the birds of Birdsville.

(c). Did Babli actually make something that was like a robe fit for a king? Why do you think so?

Ans: Yes, She collected the different kinds of feathers and made a glorious dress for herself.

(d). Who was the postman of Birdsville?

Ans: Mr. Kabootar was the postman of Birdsville.

(e). What were all the birds proud of?

An: They were proud of their town and never broke any rules.

(f). Describe the happiest day of Babli's life?

Ans: Babli received a lot of praise when she wore the dress she stitched. Everyone wanted a dress like hers! That night, Babli thought, she could become a designer and sew all kinds of wonderful dresses for the birds of Birdsville. This was the happiest day of her life

(g) What did the bulbul use to make her dress?

Ans: The bulbul used colourful feathers to make her dress.

Q.3. Reference to Context:

(a) The attire of all the birds always attracted her.

(i) Who is 'her' in the above lines?

Ans : Babli, a young bulbul.

(ii) What is the linkage of her liking the dress of all the birds and her wish getting fulfilled at the end?

Ans: She liked the dresses of all the birds and thought to become a designer.

(b). Babli, a young bulbul, worked as a cashier in 'Turkeyz café'.

(i). What was the café known for?

Ans: The cafe was known for its fig cakes and coffee.

(ii). Why didn't Babli like her café job?

Ans:. Babli didn't like her cafe job because she wanted to do something more exciting where she could dress smartly.

(c) "will you make a similar dress for me?"

(i).Who said these words?

Ans: Ms. Koeli said these words.

(ii) Describe the dress.

Ans: The dress was made of different kinds of feathers. It was colourful and nobody had seen anything like that before.

(iii) This question changed the listener's life. How?

Ans: When Ms. Koeli asked Babli to make a dress for her, Babli got the idea to become a designer. That question changed Babli's life.

Q4. Life skills and values.

Animals teach us so many things , like ants teach us to be hard working and patient.Can you name any two animals and the good traits that we can learn from them?

Post activity-

If you were asked to choose your favourite bird, which one would it be and why?

SUBJECT TEACHER

HOD

CO-ORDINATOR

PRINCIPAL