

Pre Activity-

Write a gratitude to the only one person you respect or love in your family.

New Words with meanings:

1. Intended – wished
2. Expensive – costly
3. Tricked – deceive or to fool
4. Pitcher – a thing in which we fill water
5. Shivering – trembling

Answer the following questions:

1. Why did Taro run in the direction of the stream?

Ans: Taro ran in the direction of the stream because earlier he had never heard or seen a rushing stream in the forest and he was also thirsty.

2. How did Taro's father show his happiness after drinking sake?

Ans: After drinking saké, Taro's father showed his happiness by doing a little dance in the middle of the floor.

3. Why did the waterfall give Taro saké and others water?

Ans: The waterfall gave Taro saké and others water because he was a thoughtful son who honoured and obeyed his parents always while others were greedy.

4. Why did the villagers want to drown Taro?

Ans: The villagers wanted to drown Taro because they thought that he had tricked them.

5. Why did the Emperor reward Taro?

Ans: The emperor rewarded Taro for he honoured and obeyed his parents.

B. Value based questions:

6. What value can be learnt from the life of Taro?

Ans: Taro is a loving son. His kindness is rewarded by the fountain of sake', which is a drink to provide warmth to the body. Once his father was feeling cold and desired to drink sake'. So, he decided to work hard to earn more money. His earnest way was rewarded by the king also. He became an ideal son and set example for others.

7. How does the reward given to Taro encourage others?

Ans: By reading the inspirational stories of achievers, the sensitive emotions of the reader are touched. The achievement and rewards one receives works as a motivational factor. As sake' from fountain was rewarded to Taro only and later. The emperor gave him money and also named the fountain after Taro. Such accomplishment of Taro would last forever in the mind of its listeners.

 Post-activity

State and explain any one monument the resemblance of which is named after one particular person.

was sent to India, she became a nun and chose the name Sister Teresa. This is how Agnes became Sister Teresa.

Post Activity:

Write about anything you did to help someone in need and draw it.

Subject Teacher

HOD

Coordinator

Principal