

Prepared by: Krishna Borah
Subject: English

Class: V
L-4 Recipe of disaster
Shared on-

Pre Activity-Have you ever had to work with someone who has a very different personality than you? Share your experience.

New words with meanings:

1. Round- parts of a game or contest that must be finished before the next level
2. Eliminated- removed
3. Croissant- a buttery crescent shaped French pastry
4. Dough- a thick mixture of flour, liquid or other ingredients
5. Station- a place where someone works
6. Frantically- acting wildly with emotion
7. Splattered- splashed with water
8. Crowed- spoke in a tone of satisfaction
9. Disaster- something that is very unsuccessful

Answer the following questions:

1. Sofia's bedroom walls were covered with blue ribbons. What does this mean?

Ans- She always stood first at the state fair, so Sofia's bedroom walls were covered with medals.

2. Why was sweat dripping down Sofia's face?

Ans- Sweat was dripping down Sofia's face because she was nervous.

3. Why did Sofia blink back tears?

Ans- Sofia blinked back tears when the judges gave their judgement. She felt she did not do well in the competition and she would fail.

4. What did Sofia and Mollie have to bake together in the second round of the competition?

Ans- Sofia and Mollie had to bake cheesecake together in the second round of the competition.

5. What words in the story show that Mollie moved around very swiftly while she was working?

Ans- 'A small cyclone.'

6. Why did Sofia say that she would try to relax?

Ans- Sofia said that she would try to relax because she was in hurry all the time which made things wrong.

7. What was the first item that Sofia had to bake in the National Junior Baking contest?

Ans- Croissant was the first item that Sofia had to bake in the National Junior Baking Contest.

8. Why was Sofia upset after the first round of judging?

Ans- Sofia was upset after the first round of judging because she got bad comments.

9. What did Mollie and Sofia have to make as a team for the second round of the consent?

Ans- Mollie and Sofia had to make ten cheesecakes as a team for the second round of the contest.

10. Why do you think the author of this story gave it the title 'Recipe of disaster'?

Ans- The author of this story gave it the title 'Recipe for Disaster' because it was a trouble for Sofia and Mollie both.

11. Sofia and Mollie have very different baking style. How do their differences help them in the competition?

Ans- Sofia and Mollie have different baking styles that help them to bake cheesecakes and win the competition. Mollie's baking technique helps them when they have no pot.

Reference to context:

1. 'The cinnamon is an inspired touch'

a. Who said this to whom?

Ans- The second judge said this to Mollie.

b. The cinnamon was an added touch added to what?

Ans- It was added to the croissants.

2. 'Let me take the lead. Cheesecake is a specialty of mine.'

a. Who said to whom?

Ans- Sofia said this to Mollie.

b. Where was the speaker when these words were spoken?

Ans- The speaker was in her workstation when these words were spoken.

3. 'I'll follow your lead on the steps if you let me handle the toppings'

a. Who is the speaker?

Ans- Mollie

b. Who was the speaker talking to?

Ans- Sofia

c. What were the toppings that the speaker was referring to?

Ans- The toppings were the sauce with berries and lemon.

Post Activity:

Sofia and Mollie qualified to compete for the final round of the baking competition because they worked together as a team. Do you think teamwork is important in a family, in class or at school? Give reasons.

Subject Teacher

HOD

Coordinator

Principal