SUBJECT: ENGLISH

Prepared By: Paran P.

Lesson : Literature and Grammar

SECTION A: UNSEEN PASSAGE

Good habits are like our everyday superheroes. They are the little things we do repeatedly that make our lives better.

For example, eating nutritious food, exercising, and getting enough rest keep our bodies healthy and full of energy. Reading and learning new things help our brains grow, and setting goals gives us something to look forward to.

When we are on time for appointments and keep things organized, we feel less stressed and more in control. Acts of kindness, like helping others, create strong friendships and make our community a happier place. So, good habits are like our secret tools for a great life. They help us become better, healthier, and happier every day.

Answer the following-

1. What are good habits, and how do they impact our lives?
2. How does setting goals benefit us, according to the passage?
3. Why is it important to be on time for appointments?
4. How do acts of kindness contribute to our lives and communities?
