LESSON 1- Someone

A. Pre-Activity-

Draw and colour 5 insects.

1. Keywords and Word meanings-

1. wee – very small
2. nought – nothing
3. stirring – sign of activity or movement
4. still – not moving
5. screech-owl – owl with the shrill cry

2. Reference to Context:

i. ‘So I know not who came knocking,
At all, at all, at all.’

a) Who is the poet of the poem?

Ans. The poet is ‘Walter de la Mare’.

b) What are the different sounds the poet can hear?

Ans. The poet can hear the sound of the beetle tapping on the wall, screech-owl calling and the cricket whistling.

c) Why could the poet not know who knocked the door?

Ans: The poet did not know who knocked the door because there were many sounds but there was nobody.

3. Answer the following questions:

a) How does the poet describe the door to his house?

Ans: The poet has a small door to his house.

b) Do you think someone knocked on the poet’s door or not? Give reason for your answer.

Ans: No, because it was the sound of the beetle, screech-owl’s call, and cricket whistling.

Post activity-

Write 5 disturbing sounds that you hear when you are going to sleep.
