 Pre-activity:

Write few lines on your favourite Teacher.

New words:

1. Pick their noses – cleaning nose with finger.
2. Punished in the corner – Get punished to stand in the corner of the class.
3. Pinched the chocolate flakes – stealing chocolate from others bag.
4. Hymn books – Religious books
5. Leave their greens – Not eating full tiffin.

Answer the questions:

1. Why does the poet want to know where the Teachers go at 4 O'clock?

Ans : The poet wants to know this because he has a curiosity to know, if it his teachers are also ordinary human beings.

2. What are the things normal people do that the poet talks about?

Ans : The things done by normal people are wearing clothes, wasting time, loosing religious books, stealing chocolates, watching TV etc.

3. What does he imagine about?

a) Where teachers live?

Ans: He imagines if the teachers live in houses.

b) What they do at home?

Ans: Poet imagines teachers wash their clothes, watch TV and pick their noses.

c) The people with whom they live?

Ans: He imagines if they also have parents and children to live with them.

d) Their activities when they were children in school?

Ans: During childhood, even they were bad, made mistakes, spelled a word incorrectly and were punished for eating chocolates in class, they lost their hymn books, scribbled on desk tops or even wore dirty jeans, etc.

4. Why does the poet wonder, if teachers also do things that other people do?

Ans: The poet wonders if teachers also do things that other people do because he thinks that they are not ordinary but special human beings. He assumes that these teachers are always strict, never make any mistakes and are ideal in all respects.

5. How does the poet plan to find out? What will he do once he finds out?

Ans: The poet decided to get first-hand information about his teachers by following them on the way back home so that he could find out what they do after reaching home. Once he knows what they do, he plans to compose a poem, which the teachers would then read out to their students.
