Answer the following questions:

1. What is the work of the police?

Ans:Work of the Police:

- To maintain law and order in its area.
- To register cases of thefts, accidents, injuries, fights etc.
- To inquire, investigate, and take action on the cases within its area.

2. List two things that the work of a Patwari includes.

Ans:

- Patwari measures land and keeps land records.
- He organises the collection of land revenue from the farmers and provides information to the government about the crops grown in the area.

3. What is the work of a Tehsildar?

Ans: Work of a Tehsildar:

- To supervise the work of Patwaris.
- To settle disputes regarding land.
- To get revenue collected.

4. What issue is the poem trying to raise? Do you think this is an important issue?

Why?

Ans:The poem raises the issue of rights for a girl child. A girl should be treated equally in society. She should be given the same right as a male child is given. Inheritance in the paternal properties should be equally divided among all the members without any consideration of boy or girl. Dowry is not compensated to a girl child. It should be abolished. This poem raises a very justified issue.

5. 'In what ways are the work of the Panchayat that you read about in the previous chapter and the work of the Patwari related to each other?'

Ans:Panchayat provides for facilities in the village, Patwari arranges for money to get the facilities worked out/executed.

7. Who is in charge of all the police stations in a district? Find out

Ans:Senior Superintendent of Police or Deputy Commissioner of Police is the in-charge of all Police stations in a district.

8. How do women benefit under the new law? ,

Ans:Under the new law sons, daughters and their mothers can get an equal share in the land. This law will benefit a large number of women. Now, if she ever has a problem women can always depend upon their own share of land or property.

9. In your neighbourhood are there women who own property? How did they acquire it?

Ans:Yes, in our neighbourhood there are several women who own property.

- Some of them have purchased property themselves.
- Some got the property registered in their name by their husbands/in-laws.
- Some have got the property inherited from their father.
