Subject: English

Topic : Wonderful words

Pre Activity:

Write one word of your own and make different meaningful words from it.

Q. I. State the meaning for the following lines:

1. "All that you do is match the words

To the brightest thoughts in your head"

Ans: The given lines mean that when someone has a thought in one's head and does not know how to say it, one should just use English words to pick the most accurate words that express one's thought in the best possible way.

2. "For many of the loveliest things

Have never yet been said"

Ans: Through these lines, the poet says that there are so many beautiful things that have never been written. It is wrong to perceive that everything that is good has already been said by someone or the other.

3. "Everyone's longing today to hear

some fresh and beautiful thing"

Ans: A fresh thought or idea is always welcomed by people as everyone is waiting for it.

4. "But only words can free a thought

From its prison behind your eyes"

Ans: The human mind is a huge treasure where all thoughts and idea take birth, to express those thoughts or ideas.

Q. II. Answer the following questions:

1. What does poet mean by following lines"

"But only words can free a thought

From its prison behind your eyes maybe your mind is holding now

A marvelous new surprise!"

Ans : The poet is saying that never think that we do not have any new thoughts. They are yet to be explored and searched. They yet need to come through. Thoughts and ideas are caged in our minds. If anything can set them free that is words. Words alone can give clear and beautiful expression to thoughts and ideas.

Words alone can earn them praise. So it is a must to learn and perfect our language.

2. What message is the poet trying to give?

Ans: Words help us express our thoughts, feelings, and ideas. The poet encourages us to use words beautifully and creatively to share what's in our minds. Every thought is valuable, and if we use the right words, we can make others understand and appreciate our ideas. Words have the power to make thoughts come alive, so we should choose and use them wisely. The poem inspires us to respect and explore the beauty of language.
